Opening Is Strong, Following London, But Reaction Comes on Realizing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 .- After a strong opening following a stronog London market for Americans the stock market reacted and prices eased off. There was much realizing, but the stock was well taken. London was a buyer of Copper, and that stock held above Monday's close. It opened a full point up, but reacted later. Steel preferred opened 14 up and held a fraction above 112. Steel common opened at 66%, but receded to 65%, but there was some recovery from this low.

covery from this low.

Union also went to 160%, after opening ¼ up, and a recovery of ½ was made. Reading was rather stronger than Steel or Union, going only a fraction below Monday's close and holding a gain of about ½. Canadian Pacific and Smelters were strong, the former holding a gain of about a point, and the latter a gain of about ¾. Lackawanna advanced 3 points and Mackey gained 2.

Steel, Canadian, and Union were gained 2.

Mrs. Emily Frech Barnes, SINGING AND ELOCUTION,

Easily Ascertained. As a preacher in a country village was walking to his pasterate one bright Sunday morning he saw the son of one District branch Judge Mullowny - John of his parishioners fishing in a creek. "Now, John," said the minister reprovingly, "what would your father say "I could easily find out," the boy replied, "as he is over in the next field, digging more bait."
